Skip to bottom

Home
Arts and Sciences
Canadian Resources
Communication Aids
Cookery
Dogs
Employment Information
Gardening
Travel
Washington, DC
Weather
Women in Science and Society
Worldwide Web Resources
Search Tools

About This Site
Site Map for Humans
Sitemap for Search Engines

Born ABroad

As I've moved through life, I've found some joys and some sorrows—well, a lot of sorrows. The best joy was finding that I can express my creativity and share my knowledge and experiences with others through the Web. I have worked on websites for corporations I've worked for and I develop and maintain websites for my professional organization, neighborhood civic association, and family. This site started in 1994 as a replacement for a community newsletter and contained some personal items of interest. The Cool Spring Terrace Civic Association – CSTCA community site has moved to a blog at https://coolspringterrace.wordpress.com/. I remain a work in progress and so does this site.

Until I come up with more for this introduction, please use the navigation on the left and enjoy some images of a few of the places where I've lived, worked, and visited. (More to come.)

Brazil: São Paulo & a Beach at Uba Tuba

A visit to friends from college.

Mood music for this site by Joseph Lamb (1887 - 1960) "American Beauty Rag" (1913)
from the old Warren Trachtman's Ragtime MIDI Page
Another favorite: Scott Joplin (1868 - 1917) "Reflection Rag" (1917)

Top Return to the top

American Red Cross
Together, we can save a life

Donate to the American Red Cross Disaster Relief fund or your local Red Cross chapter with voluntary donations of time, money, and blood.

Follow Me

Facebook
Twitter
Pinterest
LinkedIn

Search

This free script by javascriptkit.com

© 1994-2022 Cynthia A. Lockley. All trademarks or registered trademarks are copyrights of their respective owners. Disclaimers | Copyrights | Privacy Policy

Page maintained by Cynthia Lockley
Last revised 05 December 2021
URL: https://lockley.net/

Accessibility features